*We've only just begun to live,
The new day promises,
A wish for luck and we're on our way.
We've only just begun.*

*Before the rising sun, we fly.
So many roads to choose . . .*

*We start our walking and learn to run.
And yes, we've just begun.*

*Sharing horizons that are new to us.
Watching the signs along the way.*

*Each turn will bring a different view to us,
Working together day by day.
Together, together.*

*And when the evening
comes, we smile.
So much of life ahead . . .*

*We'll find a place where there's room to grow.
And yes, we've just begun.*

SENIORS

Just three seemingly long, but exciting, years ago, the graduating class of 1973 meekly stepped into the crowded halls of Mansfield Senior High. As sophomores, life was not easy, especially when searching for that nonexistent room as described by an upper-classman. But back in those confusing days we did overcome the odds and elected Reggie Davis as class president, along with John Hall, Regina Arter, and Shirley Neuman as vice-president, treasurer, and secretary, respectively.

Homecoming produced the big excitement in our junior year. Homecoming Queen Lorraine Robinson and her court reigned over the assembly, aptly titled "Golden Autumn Dream", and the game and dance later that night. The class officers remained the same except for Diane Jones, who took over the secretarial duties. Pop bottle drives, bake sales, and a Christmas card sale polished off the activities of the junior year.

And then it came, the dream of dreams, being that almighty senior at MHS. Although the football games were sometimes less than exciting, the Senior spirit was reignited as we followed the great Tyger basketball team. Myron Sandefer, the newly elected class president, along with his fellow officers, Debbie Tolliver who became the vice-president, and Regina Arter and Diane Jones, took the responsibility of leadership. Mr. Pugh and Mr. Goode shared the job of advising the Class of 73.

Although the road was long and unyielding, we, the seniors of 1973, will hopefully continue in our success and enthusiasm, for "We Have Only Just Begun."

Sophomore Class Flourishes in Successful Projects

The Class of 1975 brought a surplus of enthusiasm and spirit to the halls of MHS in September. The first project of their high school years was to elect class officers and choose class advisors. Lesia Fletcher was elected president, along with Patti Stuht, Michele Miller, and Nina McCruter as vice-president, treasurer, and secretary respectively. Mr. Dalton Derr and Mr. Charles Marchant were chosen as class advisors.

Money making projects for the ambitious sophomores began with a bake sale in the fall. Later a candy sale was held which netted over twelve hundred dollars in profits. Next on their busy agenda came the Minority Film Festival held in May. It included four films concerning minority groups in America. The sophomores then got an early start for next year by beginning plans for Homecoming '73.

In Solving School Problems

This year has not been an easy one for the Board of Education or for the administrators of the system or the school. Conflicts early in the year led to many groups of distraught parents, students, and faculty members, all wanting to be heard and all wanting some kind of answers. Administrators gave much of their own personal time, as well as school time, to dealing with these problems, but always with one objective in mind — keeping MHS the quality school that it has been in past years.

Mr. Plough, who is responsible for all phases of school activities and in charge of the staff, has completed his sixth year as principal of Mansfield Senior High. Mr. Franta is in charge of student discipline, and Mr. Powell takes care of all textbooks and school supplies as well as his work with the counselors.

A) MHS principal, Mr. Arlo Plough, takes a few minutes from his already crowded schedule to pose for a picture. B) When not watching the halls, Mr. Franta can usually be found in his office meeting with students and writing up reports of his conferences. C) Instructions for tryouts for the Teen Team Quiz are given over the P.A. by Mr. Powell.

Physical Education, Drivers' Training, Social Studies,

The Physical and Drivers' Education programs aim to develop basic and fundamental skills in their departments. The Physical Education Department introduces students to numerous and challenging sports. Actual driving experience and safety awareness is offered by the Drivers' Education Department.

The Special Education Department is designed around the individual student and his special educational needs.

The Fine Arts Department of M.H.S. tries to interest students by teaching them through various methods, to see, feel, appreciate and understand the meaning of the art.

The Social Studies Department tries to develop understanding of our country's history as well as world studies. This year a new honors course, American History Seminar, was taught.

Fine Arts, Part of Fine Curriculum at M.H.S.

A) Mr. Hall listens as the band plays the school fight song, "Across the Field." B) In privacy Coach Roessler reviews test papers. C) Mr. Leverle counts out the beats during an early morning band practice. D) Miss Vockell explains to her students what learning is all about. E) Coach Pfizenmayer and a student teacher, Earl Hill from Ashland College, recuperate after another day of vigorous activities.

Vocational, Business, Home Economics Departments

Prepare Students for Future Jobs

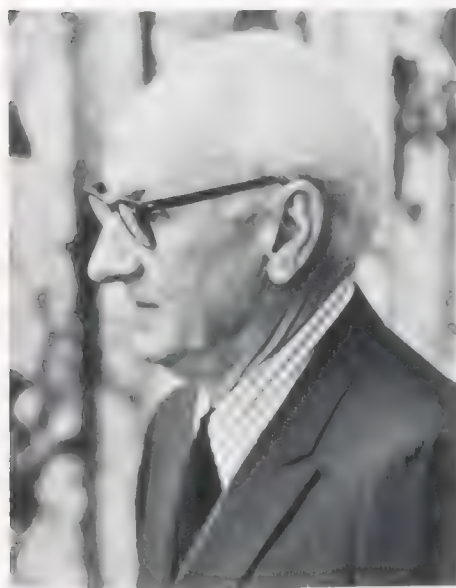

The Vocational Department aims to prepare students for future jobs in wood working, metal shops, auto mechanics, and drafting.

The Business courses taught at Senior High School prepare students for future office work, economics, and secretarial jobs.

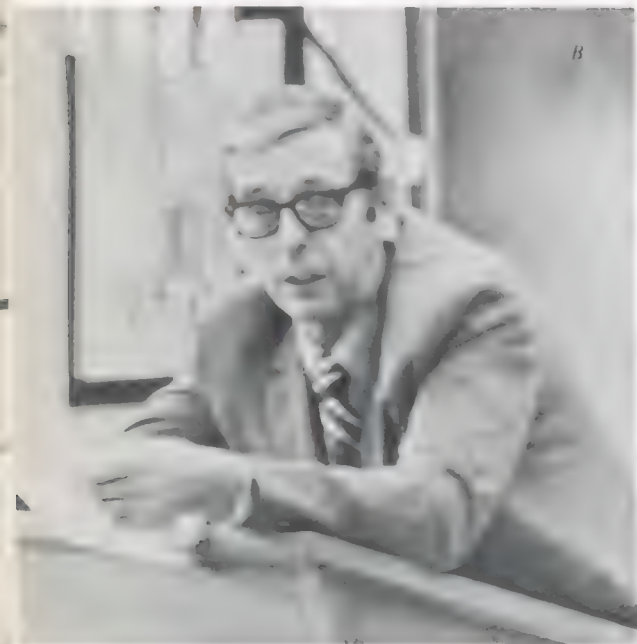

The Home Economics courses were designed to develop basic skills in sewing, grooming, food preparation, and child care. This year classes were divided into semester courses in order to create more choice and interest. The main feature of the Home Economics Department is the Tea Room. This gives girls experience in restaurant services.

A) Thoughtfully, Mr. Thoms expresses his feelings. B) Exact measurement and precision in drafting is emphasized by Mr. Bartlett. C) Mr. Eberly observes his class during a woodshop session. D) Mr. Smith and Mr. Olivieri discuss various aspects of the vocational program. E) The Manhigan photographer catches Mr. Williams in a pensive mood.

English, Foreign Languages, Science, Mathematics

A) A few quiet moments in the library seem to relax Mr. Gross. B) Mr. Pugh emphasizes the proper procedure for writing essays. C) The dilemma of balancing chemical equations is made easy with Mrs. Harris's help. D) Mr. Poffenbaugh contemplates a biological problem. E) Mr. Au finds the job of averaging grades very time consuming.

Help Develop Fundamental Skills

The English Department's main function was to improve each student's ability to convey or receive information and ideas. Students in all three grades were given a wide range of courses from which to choose. The semester course program was expanded to include sophomores, as well as juniors and seniors, this year.

The foreign language courses aimed to give students better understanding of other cultures. The courses that were offered were Spanish, French, Latin, and German.

The Mathematics Department was designed to prepare students for future jobs involving mathematics. The high academic standards in the math department are especially important to college bound students.

The aim of the Science Department was to encourage students to study and understand everyday life. Laboratory work was assembled for students to develop skills in various sciences and to watch the chemical and biological changes in matter.

Counselors, Secretaries, School Personnel

Miss Gochenaur has completed her third year as attendance coordinator at MHS. She deals with all phases of school attendance, including tardiness, absence, special excuses, and enrollment reports. Her new secretary this year is Mrs. Young.

Mrs. Imhoff acts as a clearing house for all college and scholarship information and arranges the many visits of college admissions personnel during the year. Mr. Raser is in charge of all group counselling, and Mr. Smith takes care of the testing program. Secretary to the counselors is Mrs. Markham, while Mrs. Lee acts as secretary to Mr. Powell.

Once again the library has functioned smoothly under the direction of Mrs. Rausch and Mrs. Fought and their secretary Mrs. Tatgenhorst.

Mrs. Albers and Mrs. Ernst act as secretaries to Mr. Plough and Mr. Franta. Among their many duties are securing substitute teachers, checking P.A. announcements, collecting fines and obligations, and preparing the various state and district reports.

Other secretaries in special departments are Mrs. Burton, who handles secretarial duties for the Music Department, and Mrs. Petee, who is secretary for the Vocational Department.

For the first time in several years aides were hired to handle study hall duties. They are Mrs. Guthrie and Mrs. West.

A) Attendance coordinator Miss Gochenaur makes notations on a student's record. B) Cafeteria workers and custodian Mr. Rawls take a break to pose for their picture. C) Mrs. Ernst checks some information before putting it in the state report. D) Theresa Browning and Mrs. Fought check library records for an overdue book. E) Mrs. Efird gets an early start in order to have everything finished in time for first lunch. F) It's not easy to keep the halls clean, as custodian Mr. Puckett can tell you.

M.H.S. Orchestra Displays Fine Talent

The Mansfield Senior High orchestra finished a successful year with their annual dinner. Afterwards they presented a program for family and friends. They also performed at the Christmas concert with the choir. Their selections brought out the talents and musical ability of many fine performers.

The officers were John Hall, president; Jeannette Stauffer, vice-president; Nancy Letizia, secretary; and Sue Catlett, treasurer.

A) Black spots become beautiful music when Ginny Ott plays her bassoon. B) Orchestra members performed at the Christmas concert and also accompanied the choir. C) Rick Gauhatz readies himself for the state contest. D) Mr. Hall emphasizes that individual practice is the key to good performances. E) Concentration is a vital part of playing a violin

Cheerleaders and Pep Club Promote Spirit

Pep Club and cheerleaders gained a better school spirit at MHS.

The Pep Club executive committee sold ribbons for football and basketball games throughout the year. They also organized various pep assemblies for the students.

When the cheerleaders weren't cheering, they were busy raising money to buy new uniforms. They sold tooth brushes and held bake sales. The cheerleaders went to Wheeling College in Wheeling, West Virginia, to a cheerleading camp for one week in the summer. They learned new routines and cheers.

1) The Pep Club Executive Committee includes ROW 1) Nancy Letizia, Diane Miller, Cathy Ellsworth. Monitors Help in Offices, Bookstore, Library

Students helped in the offices, the library, and the book store this year just as they have in the past. Monitors in the main office, the attendance office, and the counselors office helped the secretaries by delivering passes, filling teachers mailboxes, filing, and doing other odd jobs. Two students worked with Mr. Sauder in the bookstore before and after school and during the lunch hour. Librarians had help from their monitors with the filing and checking books in and out.

Student Council, Student Faculty Recommend School Policies;

Black Culture Promotes Black Awareness

Student Council sponsored various projects throughout the year, among them the successful distribution of Christmas baskets. For the first time they held an election to select a queen and court to reign over the J. C. Gorman Wrestling Tournament. They also came up with a new idea that proved to be quite successful for all those who took part — a slave day auction. Girls bid on the boy of their choice and then had one whole day when they could give him his various tasks.

Student Faculty Committee was organized late in the year but did work on some of the problems and complaints of various students and teachers.

Black Culture Week held in February was a highlight in the activities of the Black Culture Club this year. Speakers were invited into the school, an assembly was held featuring a popular rock group, noontime events took place in the auditorium, and students wore African dress on one day.

A) Students in the Black Culture Club are ROW 1: L. Young, D. Paige, A. Hoagland, J. Brown, B. Feagin, C. Williams, M. Sanderfer, W. Swarn. ROW 2: M. Tucker, J. Owens, A. Stevens, L. Petty, D. Red Cross, Tygerettes and Science Fair

The annual Science Fair was held at MHS on March 13th and 14th under the direction of Mr. Richard Poffenbaugh. Twenty-three students entered projects. Of those, fifteen earned superior ratings, five received excellent, and three were given good ratings.

A group of girls formed the Tygerettes this year to help out at the various athletic contests. They took times and kept statistics for the coaches at swimming, wrestling, and track events.

The Red Cross held regular meetings and worked on the various projects for the benefit of both the school and the community. At Christmas they baked cookies for inmates at the Ohio State Reformatory. Their annual Ugly Legs Contest took a turn this year, as male teachers rather than athletes posed for the pictures.

A) Jeannette Stauffer completes setting up her Science Fair project. B) Tom Fronczak makes sure his project is in order for the judges. C) Tygerettes include (TOP TO BOTTOM) T. Blasing, J. Hi-Y Clubs Promote Christian Fellowship

This year the Hi-Y clubs were involved in many different projects. Clubs worked together to sell Borden Burger discount coupons and to help the Y's Men's Club in unloading and setting up Christmas trees.

On the social side, two overnights were scheduled early in the year, one at Camp Glenn Taylor and the other at the YMCA. The annual Hi-Y basketball tournament was won by the Senior High Sophomores.

Civic Day was held on May 9 this year. Students participating spent part of the day with business and professional people finding out more about their chosen careers.

Hi-Y presidents this year were Senior Tom Fronczak, Junior Scott Hardin, and Sophomore Bruce Baehrens.

A) Sr. Hi-Y members are ROW 1: J. Hall, D. Waga, N. Holzwarth, R. Stewart, M. Coleman, J. Bales, S. Sheldon. ROW 2: G. Paul, T. Wood, M. Pifer, T. Fronczak. ROW 3: B. Frontz, T. Finnerty, C. Brazilians Experience New Life Style

Two Brazilian exchange students attended Mansfield Senior High for six months. They were Laura Barbosa and Wellington Passos. Laura stayed with Pam Lingard and her family, while Jim Buker and his family provided a comfortable home away from home for Wellington. Both of the South American students had some difficulty in speaking and understanding our language and customs at first, but they soon adjusted to our way of life.

ESP was headed by President Guy Guzzo and advised by Mr. Richard Beal. The club's goals were gaining better understanding of foreign cultures and hosting foreign exchange students.

A) Laura and her American sister select an album to listen to for some after school relaxation. B) Wellington tells the Buker family about some of the customs of his own family in Brazil. C) Debbie Tolliver shows Laura and Wellington around Senior High. D) Members of the ESP club are: SEATED: Guy Guzzo. STANDING: Mr. Beal, D. White, C. Neal, H. Seiler, D. Smith, M. Reiff, S. D) Concentration and a steady hand produce many fine results in the MHS Vocational Department. E) Senior Ken Schnieder works to complete his drafting project.

This year's electronics classes worked in the field of television and radio repair. They also repaired the school's popcorn machine and the jukebox. The class took field trips to Wright Patterson Air Force Base and the North Central Technical Institute. President of the Electronics VICA club was Fred Neumann.

The drafting club was one of only three clubs in the state to have an AIID accredited drafting course. The class was aided this year by the addition of a new cutlass machine. Dave Anable headed the Drafting VICA club. The club raised money by selling placemats and salt for driveways and sidewalks.

For World of Industry

Members of this year's Auto VICA Club sponsored and planned a softball tournament, a Father, Son, Employer Banquet, and a field trip to Dearborn, Michigan. They also enjoyed a Christmas party that was funded by a candy sale held earlier in the year. Entering the VICA competition at Pioneer Joint Vocational School in Shelby were Terry Mutchler, Jim Cushing, Larry Ziegler, and Ron Ader.

Highlights of the year for Machine VICA were two field trips to The Ohio Brass Company and Gorman-Rupp Company.

Students Plan to Present Manhigan

This year the Manhigan staff decided to try a new approach in presenting the book. They went on an earlier deadline and delivery schedule, so that students could have their books in June rather than wait until the following September. A supplement including all spring sports, activities, and graduation activities will be ready for students to pick up and add to their Manhigans in September. This way students were given the advantage of having their books at the end of the school year without losing coverage of the year's final events.

The 1972-73 staff was led by Editor-in-Chief Diane Jones, Assistant Editor Tom Fronczak, and Advisor Mr. David Gross. They were assisted by sixteen other juniors and seniors on the various sections of the staff.

A) Photographer Regina Arter stands snapping pictures for the Manhigan. B) Mr. Gross, Diane Jones, and Tom Fronczak talk over staff organization for the year. C) Taking over the underclassmen section are Bill Frontz, Colleen Moran, and Jay Bales. D) Sports staff members Jim vanHarlingen and Larry Chiverton take some time off to pose with Wags. E) Beckie Gross types up the copy for other staff members. F) The activities staff is handled by Sue Klingensmith, Becky Arron, and Mike Goff. G) Senior section consists of Nancy Schlegel and Laura Parsons. H) Senior Joan Scott heads up the faculty section

Earlier This Year

Hyphonerian Brings News to Senior High

Under the leadership of Mr. Harold Robinson the Hyphonerian brought the news to the students every month. Mr. Au advised the business staff which handles the distribution of the paper. Staffs include the editorial, news, features, and sports.

A) The Hypho business staff consists of: G. Estep, V. Plank, T. Craft, P. Stavridis, P. McWilliams, P. Prince, C. Ellsworth, C. Bell, P. Risner, P. Lingard, L. Perman, K. Brown, and T. Wood with staff advisor Mr. Au in center. B) Cheryl Sweet, Phyllis Stavridis, and Donna Rogers, make up the Hyphonerian news staff. C) Hypho photographer Paul Prince loads his camera. Students' Works Compile Spectrum

Spectrum, under the supervision of Mr. Richard Cole, advisor, published an array of literary works. Poems, short stories, and essays were judged by the various staffs.

Bess Gottgalf was this year's editor. Other staffs for this year were publicity, circulation, art, business, lay out and faculty.

Circulation was headed by Nancy Letizia, and assisting her was Bonnie Miller. Ursula Schnieders and Pat Risner composed the Art department. Pam Lingard and Cherne Smith were included on the publicity staff. Business staff was made up of Mary Shiltz and Cicile Fox. On the faculty section were Vivian Plank and Gwen Estep. Rosemarie Schnieders worked on the book's layout.

A) Attendance at the weekly meetings is a must. B) Pat Risner, Rosemarie Schnieders, Ursula Schnieders and Nancy Letizia look over last year's book. C) Cicile Fox, Cherene Smith, Pam Lingard and Mary Shiltz wait for the meeting to start. D) Vivian Plank, Bonnie Miller and Gwen Estep see a bright side to their work. E) Mary Shiltz prepares to leave after a hard day's work. F) Bess Gottgalk and Mr. Cole plan for the new book. G) Pam Lingard reviews new ideas for the next meeting. H) Extra work often extends after the meetings are over.

Tygers Roar to a 15-3 Season

The 1973 Tyger Cagers dribbled to an exciting 17-4 record, including tournament play, and placed second in the Buckeye Conference. Tyger starters included seniors Jerry Brookins, Dillet Montgomery, and Terone Butler, along with juniors Gary Feagin, and Geron Tate. The cagers' losses came from a strong Admiral King team, an upset by Sandusky, and two disappointing defeats from Findlay, including one in district competition. The team captured a thrilling one point victory over Ashland to cap the Sectional. Two returning starters, together with a strong bench and a promising reserve team, will unite to make up next year's varsity squad.

Tyger Tankers Sink to an 0-7 Season

The MHS Tyger Tankers opened their 72-73 swimming season against Ontario with a disappointing loss, and from then on they could never leave that losers puddle. Leading the pack of Tyger splashers through the water were seniors Tom Finnerty and Jim Buker. Tom Finnerty with his powerful stroke swam to an undefeated slate in the fifty yard freestyle in dual competition. Also undefeated in dual competition was Jim Buker, whose speciality was the one hundred yard breast-stroke. Buker represented MHS at the district swim finals.

Coach Clarence Roessler, a seven year veteran on the swim circuit, will lose only four seniors and hopefully will have twelve returning lettermen, along with a good crop of upcoming sophomores.

Matmen Pin Their Way to 6-1 Season

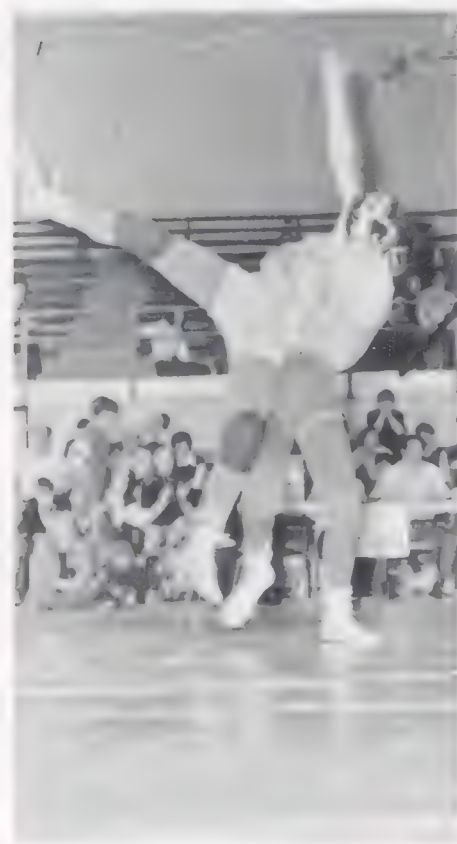

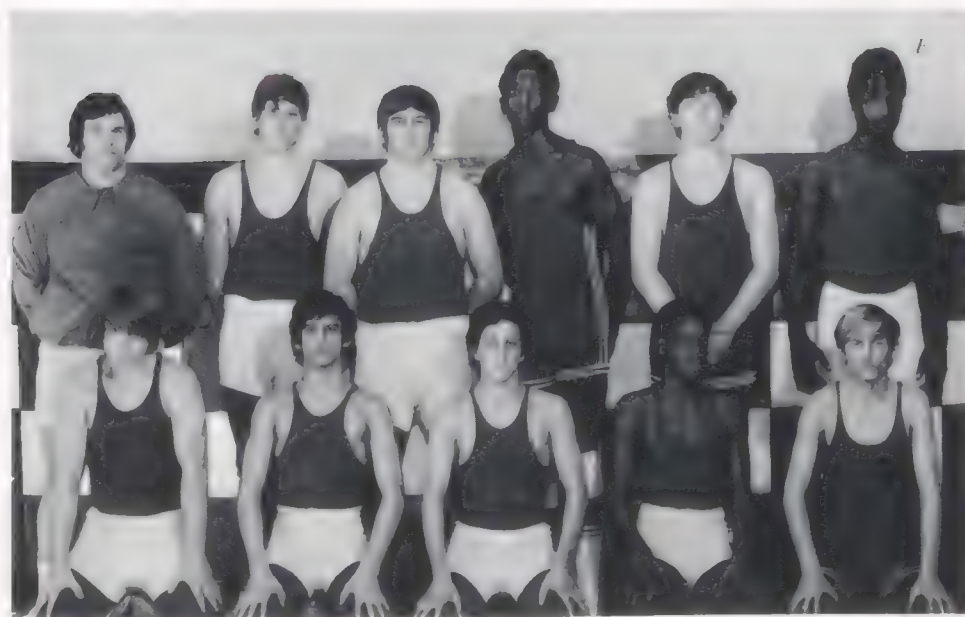

This year the Tyger grapplers sent seven wrestlers to the district at Toledo. They were Mike Higgins, Tim Shiltz, Lloyd Tate, Charles Williams, Ben Williams, Paul Johnson, and Anthony Blue. Tony Blue then went on to the state wrestling tournament in Columbus. The Tygers also continued their dominance of the J. C. Gorman Tournament with six champions.

For the first time, a queen and her court were chosen to preside over the J. C. Gorman Tournament. Only senior girls were eligible. The student body chose Linda West as queen, while Annette Hoagland, Kim Mapp, Julie Palfi, and Arlene Sqrow were members of the court.

A) Senior Tony Blue punishes an opponent on his way to a J. C. Gorman championship. B) Mike Higgins has complete control over his opponent. C) Kim Mapp, Arlene Sqrow, Queen Linda West, Julie Palfi, and Annette Hoagland wait to present trophies to the champions. D) Varsity wrestlers are ROW 1: B. Selmon, T. Shiltz, L. Tate, C. We wish to thank Mr. Philip Neuman and the Junior BOE Clerk-Typists for their help in typing our senior activities.

We'd Like to Thank . . .

As editors of the 1973 Manhigan, we would like to thank all those who contributed their valuable time and talent to help make this book a reality.

A special thanks and a pat on the back go to all the members of our staff who worked long and hard to meet deadlines which came much earlier this year due to spring delivery. We also wish to express our appreciation to Mr. David Gross, our advisor, and to Mr. Earl Parks, the American Yearbook Company representative, for all their help.

At this time we would like to acknowledge the fine work done by our photographer Regina Arter, along with the valuable services of Paul Prince, Smucker's Studio, and the Mansfield News-Journal. We are also grateful to Norbert Holzworth, who provided us with the artwork, and to Mr. Wayne Au and the business staff for all their work with advertising, sales, and distribution.

In closing, we wish next year's Manhigan staff the best of luck!

MANHIGAN SUPPLEMENT

1973 SPRING ACTIVITIES

July reunion set for Class of '73

The Mansfield Senior High School Class of 1973 will hold its 15th-year reunion July 9 at 6:30 p.m. at Meadowbrook Farm in Bellville.

Information on the event is available from Debbie Metzger, 1815 Walker Lake Road, Mansfield 44906.

The Drama II class presented an evening of three one act plays on April 11th. The first, "Distant Thunder", told of an alcoholic girl Maryanne (Anita Massa) who is blamed by her sister Christine (Heather Dalton) for the death of her husband. Kay English portrayed Dr. Shaffer and Patty Gross took the part of the girl's mother.

"The Day After Forever" was the second play. It told of a young girl Diane Clayton (Becky Arron), who was ried, and her real mother Mrs. Vale (Opie Carper), who came to see her on her wedding day. Gail Thomas took the part of the maid Ella Lee; Linda Smith played Diane's foster mother Mrs. Clayton; and Paul Prince played Johnny, the groom.

"Cupid Is a Bum" was the last play of the evening. It was about a computer dating office and the professor (Jay Bales) and his secretary (Laurie Shasky) who work there. Randy Davidson played the part of a young man in search of a mate. Mike Goff and Denise Payton played a young couple who come to the office. Laurie Hammett portrayed a maid, and Paul Prince's voice came through the computer.

A) Dr. Shaffer assures Maryanne that her problems are over. B) Professor Breen and his secretary check the dating computer. C) The computer service pairs up the couples. D) The bride and groom are seen before the ceremony. E) Christine scolds her mother, telling her that Maryanne should not be brought back home. F) Diane Clayton asks her mother if Mrs. Vale can stand for her wedding.

Drama II Class Presents An Evening

of Three One Act Plays

Tygers Bat to 10-11-1 Season

This year the Tyger baseball players finished with a 10-11-1 season. They lost the first three games due to a high rate of injury and sickness. Half way through the season they won seven out of eight games in a row before hitting a slump which gave them only one out of the last seven games. Ralph Brown was voted MVP, leading hitter, and most improved, while Dean Donnan and Max Fischbach acted as co-captains.

A) Varsity players are ROW 1: M. Fischbach, A. Vandayburg, M. Krizan, R. Brown, C. Johnson, K. McFarland, M. Johnson. ROW 2: Coach Dressler, M. Fischbach, M. Laser, B. Lehnhart, A. Fisher, D. Donnan, T. Massa, G. Knackstedt. B) Allen Vandayburg keeps his eye on the ball. C) The Tyger outfield moves in. D) A burst of speed brings Dean Donnan into base just ahead of the ball.

A) The Tygers watch Mike Fischbach bat in a run. B) Reserve players are ROW 1: D. Stuchell, P. Conrad, B. Black, S. Shiplett, J. Walker, M. Brown. ROW 2: Coach Hetler, J. Lacy, R. Pelasky, G. Couch, H. Montgomery, M. Fisher, K. Webb.

Although the schedule was tough, the weather miserable, and the team young, veteran coach Jim Goode guided his netmen through a challenging season. The Tygers opened the season with a strong victory over Shelby behind the shots of Doug Warga, Tom Fronczak, and Duffy Carto. The netters gave Galion their toughest match of the year with the entire team combining in a group effort.

Senior netter Doug Warga took the team's number one spot, with Tom Fronczak filling in on occasion. The talented but inexperienced sophomore trio of Steve Meckling, George Matthews, and Colin Paul often won matches when the chips were down.

Tom Fronczak and Doug Warga lost in the finals of the Buckeye Conference and Sectional Tournaments both by two points. the dynamic duo, however, stroked their way through tough opponents to the state tennis championship tournament, where they reached the top eight teams in the state.

Experienced Seniors Lead Tyger

Netmen Through Challenging Season

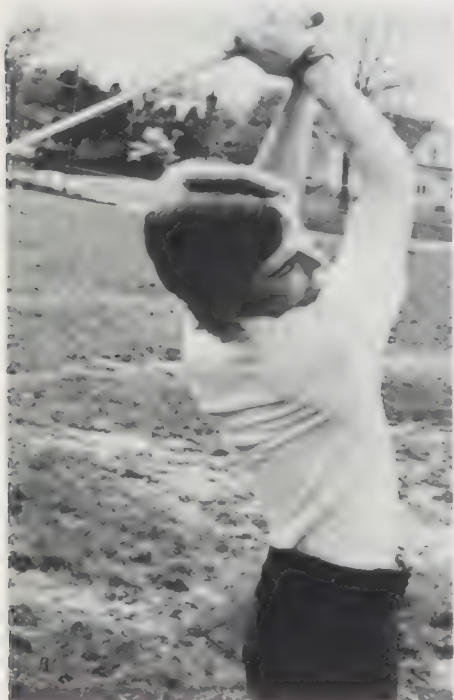

A) Tyger netmen are S. Meckling, B. Frontz, S. Hardin, K. Christman, C. Jackson, T. Fronczak, D. Carto, D. Warga, G. Mathews. B) Junior netter Duffy Carto unloads a winning forehand past his opponent. C) Second year Tyger coach, Jim Goode, expertly demonstrates how not to hit a tennis ball. D) Total concentration and effort needed for a successful game is displayed by number one man Doug Warga. E) Senior Tom Fronczak attacks his opponent's return with a smashing backhand. F) Bill Frontz and Duffy Carto stroke a few balls during the warmup before their match.

Tyger Golfers Show Much Improved Record;

The Tygers bounced back from an 0-20 record to a 7-7-1 record under new coach Vic Pfizenmayer. Tim Hager was announced as MVP and also as Medalist. Sophomore Bruce Schlegel scored the most points for the "putters". The team finished fourth in the sectionals and is expecting to do even better next year, as this year's reserves finished with a 5-1 record.

A) Members of the Golf team are P. Michaels, B. Jackson, T. Hager, C. Riggleman, D. Catlett, J. Dellevar, B. Schlegel, and E. Craft. B) Bruce Schlegel shows his concentration after hitting a long drive. C) Charley Riggleman hits the long ball. D) Out of the rough and into the hole for Doug Catlett's shot.

Tyger Tracksters Run to Great Season

The Tyger tracksters finished a successful season under new head coach Doug Castle. New records were made as Tom Siwek broke the 8-80 school record and Tyrone Coleman shattered the record in the broad jump. Coleman also went on to win the state championship in the broad jump.

Outstanding seniors were honored at the annual Class Day held May 24, 1973. Many parents and teachers were present in the auditorium to see students receive their awards.

Ranking at the top of their class, Reggie Davis and John Hall were presented the valedictorian and salutatorian awards. Gold tassels and cords were given to the top ten per cent of the graduating class.

Linda Lucas and Reggie Davis were named the outstanding seniors by the University Club. Runners-up were John Hall, Dean Donnan, Guy Guzzo, Paul Johnson, Linda Smith, Pam Lingard, Sue Konves, and Diane Jones.

A) John Hall is presented the salutatorian award by Superintendent Glass. B) Reggie Davis and Linda Lucas receive silver bowls, designating them as outstanding boy and girl. C) Mr. Pugh congratulates Rosemarie Schnieders as she receives her gold tassel and cord. D) Rows of red and white robed seniors made a colorful display in the auditorium. E) Debbie Tolliver is given the Principal's Award by Mr. Plough. F) The outstanding boy nominees await the decision. G) The Pete Henry Award for an outstanding athlete is presented to Paul Johnson by Mr. Flanagan. H) President Myron Sanderfer hands over his gavel to Scott Gilbert.

Seniors Honored at Class Day '73

Seniors End Their Year at M.H.S. With Prom

The seniors held their prom on Friday, May 25 at the Ramada Inn. A buffet dinner was served from seven-thirty to eight-thirty, followed by dancing from nine to twelve. Playing for the event was the "Progressive Sound".

After-prom activities started at one-o'clock at the Richland Mall Cinema, where seniors saw the hit movie "They Shoot Horses, Don't They?". From there they moved on to Park Lanes for bowling and pool.

A) Max Fischbach and Linda Smith get ready to select food from the buffet table. B) Ticket taker John Long greets Guy Guzzo and his date Carol Ryckman, as they arrive at the prom. Commencement Ends Seniors' Years at M.H.S.

The class of 1973 ended high school days with Baccalaureate on June 3 and Commencement on June 7. Both were held under clear skies at Arlin Field.

The Reverend Joel King, pastor of Mt. Hermon Baptist Church, gave the Baccalaureate sermon, in which he urged seniors to "cut down the timbers" separating people in the world.

Seniors changed commencement exercises this year, in that they did not invite a guest speaker. Instead class members were asked to speak. Myron Sanderfer, Senior Class President, gave the first speech, welcoming classmates, parents, and guests. He was followed by Tom Fronczak, Student Council President, who summed up the activities of the year. Reggie Davis, Valedictorian, gave the final address, reminding seniors that the future depends on them.

Mr. Plough then presented the class to the Board of Education, and diplomas were awarded by Board members Dr. Dees and Mr. Murray. Activities were concluded when President Myron Sanderfer led the class in the turning of the tassels.

A) Mr. Plough congratulates Jim Buker, who waits in line to receive his diploma. B) Class President Myron Sanderfer pauses to collect his thoughts. C) Assistant principal Mr. Powell gives instructions to the boys before the ceremonies begin. D) Male graduates prepare to march into Arlin Field. E) Anxious seniors listen attentively to their fellow classmates give speeches. F) Valedictorian Reggie Davis receives his diploma from Board member Dr. Dees.
